Warehouse Keeper

at Aastha department store

Location: Bharatpur, Nepal

Company Industry: -

Job Role: Sales

Warehousekeeper is the person responsible for managing goods in the warehouse on all stages from transferring goods to the warehouse, exporting goods from the warehouse, to inventory statistics.

Or

A warehouse storekeeper oversees general operations and activities, including shipment and taking deliveries, conducting stock checks, recording warehouse transactions, storage of inventory, and guaranteeing the safe and efficient operation of the material handling equipment in a warehouse.

Chief Cook

at Own

Location: Bharatpur, Nepal

Company Industry: -

Job Role: Hospitality and Tourism

I love this cooking profession very much. I learned this profession from my father. In Nepal, if we have to cook sweet and tasty food when we go to a wedding or other kind of event or picnic in a village house, we are remembered in the season in our area, but I learned this job while traveling with my father during my free time. Earlier, I used to cook under the open sky by burning firewood, but now it has been 5/10 years, I cook directly on gas. How many people should be cooked and fed is not a big deal, but I need to have enough helpers in the kitchen, I can cook and feed all the dishes.

Customer care service

at Aastha department store

Location: Bharatpur, Nepal

Company Industry: -

Job Role: Customer Service and Call Center

While learning and gaining experience, I got the opportunity to learn customer care service again at Aastha department store. Just like the work of salesman, security guard and warehouse helper, but this job is a little different from those jobs. Because this customer care service job is directly with the consumer, what are their needs? -Which items could not be delivered immediately or what items were delivered safely on time as they sought? Along with these things, it is necessary to easily resolve various complaints about the work done by their staff in the market or whether they are not fully addressed in the speech. I had a golden opportunity to get a wonderful experience of this. I also got more encouragement and I was completely satisfied at that time because I had full faith that work does not matter whether it is small or big, which my father used to teach me from a young age.

Salesman Indoor

at Al-othaim

Location: Onaizah, Saudi Arabia

Company Industry: -

Job Role: Customer Service and Call Center

There is no such thing as simple or easy work, but if there is a strong will to work and full honesty towards the work, then the absolute personal definition of nothing is impossible. After going to the hyper market, I got to experience it. Which is still useful for my working life. In the first days or the first 5/6 months, it was a bit difficult for me to understand the language and also the way of buying goods in the market of local or foreign customers and the goods that the customers are looking for. In the early days of me and the customer, I got a chance to learn something bittersweet or a great lesson for me when I did not receive or received a broken product or the product expired. Which is really essential for all new salesman employees. As much as we can get feedback from consumers or whatever the need of the consumer is, solving the related problem as soon as possible is good for both ourselves and the company.

(7th april 2012 to 5th october 2015)

warehouse helper

at Aastha department store

Location: Bharatpur, Nepal

Company Industry: -

Job Role: Sales

After working as a salesman for 4 years and as a security guard for 1 year, I got an opportunity to work as a helper in a warehouse, which was a very challenging job for me. In the early days, it was very difficult to receive the goods or unload the load as the goods of different companies were delivered daily. Because I didn't have the experience to pull the goods out of the delivery jack well, which I learned slowly. If the received goods are complete or not, if the goods are damaged or broken, take good information and inform the person in charge of your warehouse and the person who will take the delivery. I used to inform the salesmen or merchandisers working in the relevant section about the delivery of any goods.

To be successful as a warehouse helper, you should be knowledgeable of standard warehouse practices and be able to lift or move heavy objects. Ultimately, an outstanding warehouse helper should be able to use various lift equipment in a safe manner and demonstrate excellent communication, organizational, and time management skills.

security guard

at Royal centuary hotel

Location: Bharatpur, Nepal

Company Industry: Catering, Food Service, & Restaurant

Job Role: Security

After working as a salesman for 4 years, I got curious to work in a completely new field and got that opportunity in this company (Aastha Department Store). As work and responsibilities were different, I became more attached to work. For the safety of consumers who come to buy goods in the market or sometimes the mutual fight between consumers should be resolved naturally, if some questionable items are seen outside or inside the market, the relevant authorities should be informed immediately. In addition to keeping the consumer's vehicles in an orderly place, they also have to take care of them in a way that gives them a sense of complete safety and provide service to everyone in a polite manner. Since this profession is completely new, the company first gave me security related training and also provided me with the necessary security equipment.

a person whose job is to guard a place (such as a store or museum) and make sure the people and things in it are not harmed.

For exmpales :-

1. Observing and reporting · 3. Keeping good public relations · 4. Responding to emergencies · 5. Controlling access and using alarm systems · 6. Patrolling etc.

Salesman Indoor

at Aastha department store

Location: Bharatpur, Nepal

Company Industry: Retail & Wholesale

Job Role: Sales

The experience of leaving home for the first time in my life and working in the city was not pleasant at first, but gradually as I worked, I became like you and me, and then those older brothers became my guide. While working in the market line in the early days, not knowing how to properly display the goods in the section, not knowing the expiry date of the goods, not knowing how to change the price of the goods well, not being able to clean the section well and having to spend 1/2 day with the customer to complain made me a little deeper towards the work. Willingness to work became more conscious. At first, I had problems with the customers, later those same customers remembered me when I went to the market even on my holidays and said about me, that man speaks kindly and sweetly. I was very happy to hear that.
